PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

IN RE: KENTUCKY UTILITIES COMPANY RATE INCREASE PETITION

MOTION TO INTERVENE

Comes Benjamin J. Lookofsky and moves this Commission that he be allowed to intervene in the petition filed in this matter for rate increase filed by the Kentucky Utilities Company.

The MOVANT states that he is a customer of Kentucky Utilities Company living in Lexington, Kentucky, and as such has the right to intervene in the petition filed by Kentucky Utilities Company seeking a rate increase. In reading the public notice that appeared in the February 11, 2010, Lexington Herald-Leader, there is nothing in the notification that indicates the exact reason why a rate increase is necessary for this electrical monopoly within the area that it serves.

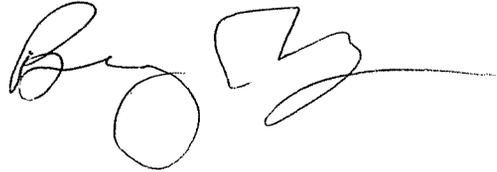

WHEREFORE, this movant, Benjamin J. Lookofsky, respectfully moves this Commission that he be allowed to intervene in said petition and that a copy of the application and other filings made by the utility be forwarded to said movant.
